CHRISTOPHE SUT, CEO:

“After my first full quarter at Scanfil, I am happy to present the financial results for October–December 2023, the quarter that ended our record year. I am also pleased to give you some insight into the period where we have been active on many fronts, from internal to external stakeholders and from operational matters to strategy.

The year 2023 was a record year. The turnover growth, excluding spot-market purchases, was 15.6%. The total revenue was over EUR 900 million, and the organic growth was 6.9%. Strong figures demonstrate the quality of our customer portfolio and the solid performance of our factories. Operating profit also reached a record level of EUR 61.3 million and the operating margin reached the strong level of 6.8%. In 2023, our customer segments showed their growth potential and Scanfil grew to a new level.

In the fourth quarter, as expected, overall demand growth for the EMS market returned to historical levels. The turnover growth excluding spot-market purchases was 4.9%. The overall turnover decreased by 0.7% compared to the fourth quarter of 2022.

Despite a flattish market, our largest customer segment, Energy & Cleantech, grew by 26.8% in 2023 and kept a strong momentum during the fourth quarter with a growth of 21.9%. Energy transformation and sustainability drives the market. Growth figures showcase Scanfil’s good positioning in the customer segment with leading companies. I have met many customers with our teams and focused on deepening our partnership. We inaugurated a new electronics assembly line in Atlanta with many of our key customers present and showing strong interest in the site’s new capability. In 2023, our customer satisfaction improved significantly compared to the previous year.

In the fourth quarter, profitability improved compared to the fourth quarter of last year. Reported operating profit was EUR 13.4 million, with an operating margin of 6.1%, compared to 6.0% last year. During that quarter demand was flattening out and we focused on efficiency improvements. When fully implemented, the improvement plan will generate EUR 1.7 million in annual savings, and support Scanfil’s competitiveness. Excluding one-off costs for the efficiency improvement, customer settlement, spot-market purchases and other material invoicing the operating margin was 6.7%.

Our financial position is strong, gearing was 19.4%, and equity ratio was 53.7%. Our solid balance sheet enables us to make the investments required to develop our business. Our net cash flow from operating activities was at an all-time high. In the fourth quarter, it was EUR 34.8 million, and EUR 68.9 million for the full year. Scanfil is well-positioned and very capable of financing the potential expansion of its operations. The company’s ability to pay dividends is at a good level and the Board proposes a dividend of 0.23 euro per share.

We continued our good development towards more sustainable manufacturing. In 2023, we got the honor of being recognized by two of our customers for our sustainability work. The share of fossil-free energy used by us compared to overall energy consumption achieved a 50% milestone and it was 52.4%. The 2030 target for the share of fossil-free energy consumption is 60%. To further drive this change, we are taking the next steps and investing in solar panels and geothermal energy in the Sieradz factory expansion.

Our solid performance in the fourth quarter reflects Scanfil’s robust operations and solid customer demand. We continue to rebalance our customer mix and seek growth from faster-growing segments. During the quarter, the Management Team and the Board of Directors have been very active. We are now finalizing our strategy update, and it will be presented at Capital Markets Day on the 5th of March in Stockholm with other topical and interesting subjects.

I would like to thank all our employees, customers, and other business partners for our successful collaboration. The company’s current situation emphasizes our strong position and gives us confidence to continue building our success.”

OPERATING PROFIT

The operating profit for October–December was EUR 13.4 (13.4) million, 6.1% (6.0%) of turnover. Due to the destocking and stagnating growth of demand the company started actions to adjust the fixed personnel expenses. Lay-off costs related to the adjustment had a negative impact on the fourth quarter operating profit. In addition, the operating margin was negatively affected by invoicing of spot-market purchases as well as material sales from the inventory and a one-time price settlement with a customer. The total negative impact on the operating margin was 0.6% in the reporting period. The operating margin excluding these negative impacts was 6.7%.

The operating profit for January–December was EUR 61.3 (45.4) million, 6.8% (5.4%) of turnover. The operating profit was positively affected by good customer demand and increased productivity, which was supported by improved component availability. The operating margin in 2023 was negatively affected by spot-market purchases and excluding them it was 6.9%. The operating profit in January–December 2022 was negatively affected by EUR -2.5 million of foreign exchange rates changes. In addition, operating margin in 2022 was negatively affected by high value of spot-market purchases.

NET PROFIT AND EARNINGS

The net profit for October–December was EUR 10.9 (10.5) million, an increase of 4.0%. Earnings per share were EUR 0.17 (0.16). The net profit for January–December was EUR 48.2 (35.0) million, an increase of 37.6%. Earnings per share were EUR 0.74 (0.54). Return on investment was 19.4% (14.6%).

The effective tax rate in January–December was 21.7% (16.0%). The tax rate was impacted negatively by taxes of intercompany dividends. In 2022, taxes of intercompany dividends had a slightly positive impact.

FINANCING AND CAPITAL EXPENDITURE

Scanfil’s financial position improved significantly during 2023. The consolidated balance sheet total was EUR 518.0 (525.5) million at the end of the review period. Finland and 286 (308) in Finland. The average number of Group employees during the review period was 3,671 (3,403) people.

CHANGES IN GROUP STRUCTURE

There have been no changes in the Group structure during the reporting period.

FUTURE OUTLOOK

Scanfil estimates that its turnover for 2024 will be EUR 820–900 million, and an adjusted operating profit of EUR 57–65 million.

The outlook is based on customer forecasts and Scanfil's normal forecasting process. The outlook is associated with uncertainty related to global economic development.

LONG-TERM TARGETS

Scanfil is organically aiming for 5%–7% annual turnover growth and 7% operating profit level. Scanfil aims to pay an increasing dividend of approximately 1/3 of the earnings per share.

OPERATIONAL RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

Current recognized risks are strategic risks such as uncertainties in the global economy and risks in the political environment which might prevent the company from achieving its economic targets.

Other recognized risks are related to high inflation, materials prices and availability, exchange rates and cyber security.

The negative development of the global economy may have an impact on Scanfil revenue and profitability in midterm.

If conflicts in Ukraine and the Middle East continue and further escalate, it might impact Scanfil and its customers business environment. Also, other political and trade political tense and related actions might impact Scanfil's business environment.

The overall inflation influences the company's cost structure. The inflation rate has lowered, but there are uncertainties regarding future development.

Material availability, especially semiconductors, was challenging in 2021–2022. The situation has significantly improved during 2023, although constraints with specific materials availabilities can still be recognized.

The changes in foreign exchange rates are a risk to profitability. Scanfil mitigates the risk by using foreign exchange forward contracts.

Cyber security is recognized as an increasing risk. Scanfil is making continuous monitoring and development on the ICT environment and systems to mitigate the risk.

The risk of energy availability and cost increase is not expected to have significant impact on the short-term revenue or profitability. However, in the long run the risk might arise again.

The company's risks and risk management are described on the company's website under Corporate Governance and in the notes to the consolidated financial statement for 2022.

Scanfil is an international manufacturing partner and system supplier for the electronics industry with over 45 years of experience in demanding manufacturing. Scanfil provides its customers with an extensive array of services, ranging from product design to product manufacturing, material procurement and logistics solutions. Vertically integrated production and a comprehensive supply chain are the foundation of Scanfil's competitive advantages: speed, flexibility and reliability.

Typical Scanfil products are modules or integrated products for e.g. self-service applications, automation systems, wireless connectivity modules, climate control systems, collection and sorting systems, analyzers and environmental measurement solutions. Scanfil services are used by numerous international automation, safety, energy, cleantech and health service providers, as well as companies operating in the field of urbanization. Scanfil's network of factories consists of nine production units in Europe, Asia and North America.
